1   Lonely Runner Conjecture

Given a unit length circulr track and k runners that are travelling at a pairwise distinct speed. Call a runner lonely if they are at least $1/k$ units from every other runner at some time t. The Lonely Runner Conjecture states that every runner is lonely at some time.